

With the Washington Churches

CONGREGATIONAL.

o'clock tomorrow by Dr. William Stansfield, organist and choir director. Organ prelude, "In the Morning" (Grieg); anthems, "Praise the Lord" (Handel), and "Lift Thine Eyes" (Mendelssohn). Mrs. Smart, Miss Kimball, Miss Larner, of fertility, bass solo, Mr. Humphrey; organ prelude, "Triumphal March" (Nauman). There will be no evening service at the church until fall, except the Christian Endeavor meeting at 7 o'clock.

The observance of the holy communion and the admission of new members will be the form of service at Mount Pleasant Congregational Church tomorrow morning. There will be a brief communion service by the pastor, Rev. Clarence A. Vincent, D. D. The church quartet will furnish the music. There will be no evening service until October.

The men's and women's Bible classes have combined for summer services as a union adult class which will meet Sunday mornings at 10 o'clock. Rev. Edwin M. Bliss will be in charge. The topic tomorrow will be "Missions and World Peace." Children's Day will be observed by the Sunday school June 11 with a patriotic service.

The Mount Pleasant Chorus, which has been an attractive feature of the evening services of the church, completed its work for the season with an elaborate and pleasing program last Sunday. The chorus was assisted by Dr. B. Amlis, Jr., Harry B. Bradford and Charles L. Casterlin, violinists. Dr. W. E. Buchanan, who has so ably directed the work of the chorus for the past year, has resigned owing to the increasing demands upon his time as a physician. At the last rehearsal he was presented with a silver-trimmed ebony baton by the members of the chorus, the presentation being made by Norton M. Little. The members of the chorus are: Sopranos, Mrs. Ellenberger, Mrs. Crane, Mrs. Brooks, Misses Bennett, Clark, Darby, Farrington, Fisher, Fuller, Little, Peck, Ronsaville, Tingley, Vincent, and Wyndkoop; altos, Mrs. Bowman, Mrs. Bradford, Mrs. Buell, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Hewins, Mrs. Hinton, Mrs. Little, Mrs. Morgan, Misses Evans, Hummel and Pratt; tenors, Messrs. Baldwin, Corder, Guilford, Lippitt, and Sanford; basses, Messrs. Buell, Fisher, Hinton, Little, Luke and Stockton. Claude Roberson is organist.

EPISCOPAL.

Bishop Harding will officiate at the ordination service to be held tomorrow morning in Bethlehem Chapel, Washington Cathedral, and he will be assisted by Dean Bratenahl, Archdeacon Williams, Canon De Vries, and Rev. William V. Tunnell. The sermon will be preached by Rev. Franklin I. A. Bennett, vicar of Calvary Episcopal Church.

There are two candidates to be ordained, Rev. Charles S. Sedgwick, as priest, and George B. Fowler, as deacon. The Cathedral Choir will render an excellent musical program for the occasion.

Tomorrow will be a busy day at the Cathedral, eight services having been scheduled. Bishop Harding will participate in four of the services. The bacalaureate service of the Cathedral School for Boys will take place at Peace Cross in the afternoon at 3:30, and Dean Bratenahl will deliver the address. In the evening at 8 o'clock the corresponding service for the Girls' School will be held in Bethlehem Chapel, when the address will be given by the Bishop of Asheville, Rev. J. M. Horner, whose daughter is one of the graduates.

The commencement exercises of the Cathedral School for Boys will occur on Monday, June 5, and Bishop Harding will be the speaker. At the commencement of the Girls' School on Tuesday the address will be given by the Bishop of Tennessee, Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Gallor.

PRESBYTERIAN.

"That Worthy Name" is the subject of the sermon to be given tomorrow morning by Rev. Dr. Joseph F. Kelly, pastor of Fourth Presbyterian Church. The evening service will also be led by Dr. Kelly and will be held in the tent pitched on the lot adjoining the church at the corner of the Fairmont and Fairmont streets. The remainder of the summer's evening services on Sundays and Thursdays will be held in the tent unless inclement weather prevents.

The study of personal work and training for Christian service will be taken up next Thursday evening at the mid-week meeting of Fourth Church and will be continued for several weeks. The young ladies of the Sunday school and gymnasium will entertain the young men of the Henry Gilbert Class on Wednesday, June 7, at a lawn party to be given at the country home of Mr. Gilbert in Virginia. The young people with their chaperones will hike from Aqueduct Bridge to Mr. Gilbert's farm.

At Gunton-Temple Memorial Presbyterian Church, at 11 o'clock tomorrow the pastor, Rev. Dr. C. Everett Granger, will preach on the topic: "The Duty of the Christian Church Relative to War." A special musical program will be given by the church choir. The Sunday evening services have been discontinued for the summer.
